Join the Tradition

Since 1944, young people ages 10-15 have enjoyed Oglebay Institute's Junior Nature Camp. With a goal to increase understanding of our natural world in an environment that promotes teamwork, personal responsibility & respect, Junior Nature Camp field experience can't be equaled in any classroom.

Junior Nature Camp is held at Camp Giscowheco, a picturesque setting located in the hills of West Virginia, 10 minutes from Wheeling. The camp facility includes platform tent villages, dining hall, swimming pool & a volleyball court. The stream, forest and meadow provide the perfect outdoor classroom for the study of everything from invertebrates & ferns to birds & mammals.

Nature Studies:      Activities Include:

- * Ornithology
- * Botany
- * Herpetology
- * Astronomy
- * Entomology
- * Ecology
- * Watershed Science
- * Canoeing
- * Swimming
- * Orienteering
- * Art & Crafts
- * Climbing Wall
- * Music
- * Archery
- * Nightly Campfire

Each day begins with a morning bird walk. Small group nature and art sessions are followed by an afternoon program presented by regional nature experts. Former campers, now nature professionals, return as staff members. Camper to staff ratio never exceeds 6:1.

Delicious, healthy meals are served family style. Fresh fruit is available all day and snacks are provided each evening before campfires.

All campers are required to complete a Camp Health Form. A copy of a current physical exam (completed after August 4, 2011) by a practicing physician is required. A licensed nurse is on duty at Junior Nature Camp at all times.

An information packet including the health form, camp welcome letter, procedures & confirmation of registration will be mailed upon receipt of registration.

Scholarships are available and awarded based on need. Call 304-242-6855 for eligibility requirements or download an application at www.JuniorNatureCamp.org. Application deadline is May 31, 2012.
